

WINE TASTING

HOST: BOB CUBILLAS

Urban Uco Torrontes

11.29

Subtle, but has concentration and nice creamy texture, with tangerine, nectarine, spice and lemon peel gliding through the firm finish. 89 Points by James Molesworth.

Bundini Chardonnay

11.89

Tropical fruit and lemon aromas combined with gentle oak notes to provide an alluring complexity. It is medium-bodied and has well-balanced acidity with hints of lemon and pineapple fruit that lead to a dry, crisp finish. There is just a kiss of oak flavor that frames the fresh fruit flavors.

Kaiken Malbec

13.49

This Malbec presents a vivid ruby red color with purple hues. On the mouth, mature red fruits and chocolate are vividly present, mixing harmoniously with the oak, while violet aromas enhance the wines complexity on the nose.

La Puerta Reserva Bonarda

15.29

Intense, nearly black color with purple hues. Aromas of ripe plums with floral tones lead to a velvety sensation and subtle character on the palate. Nice complexity in the mouth, with powerful fruit and soft tannins that lead to an elegant finish.
